DESCRIPTION: WOOD FIRED GRILL FUOCONE

The main feature of the wood-fired grill Fuocone, is the Cruccolini's non-stop cooking system, thanks to which you can have embers ready to cook for all the time you need!

You will be free to organize parties with many friends, being sure to be able to grill optimally for all.

Its grill, like in true Tuscan tradition, is made of steel round bars with two heights adjustment to place the food at the right distance from embers and reach the desired cooking.

Comes with two skewers for cooking sausages and small pieces of meat over direct heat.

The wood-fired grill Fuocone has a solid wrought iron frame made to withstand the daily use of the most passionate, or professionals!

Ideal for those who are looking for a quality product that lasts, practical to use, and especially for those who like to get together with a lot of friends and partying during the long summer evenings ... and not only ...
